Due to the COVID-19 (coronavirus) public health emergency, and in an effort to reduce in-person meetings that assemble large groups of people, Governor Greg Abbott has granted a temporary suspension of certain rules to allow for city council members, boards, commissions, corporations, and city employees to participate in a city meeting via videoconference call or other remote electronic means without a physical quorum of members being present at the site of the meeting.

As a result, physical quorums of the members of the City Council, boards, commissions, or corporations may not be present during their meetings, as some members may choose to participate in the meetings remotely as permitted by Governor Abbott's suspension of various statutes that may be interpreted to require face-to-face interaction between members of the public and public officials.
